Children and Community
Services Act
2004*121. Authority conferred by warrant (access)

- (1) In this section —
“warrant (access)” means a warrant (access) issued under section 34(3), 52(4) or 135(5).
- (2) A warrant (access) authorises any authorised officer —
- (a) to enter, at any time, any place where the officer reasonably believes the child to be;
  - (b) to search the place for the purpose of finding the child;
  - (c) to remain at the place for as long as the officer considers reasonably necessary to find the child; and
  - (d) if the child is found, to remain at the place and have access to the child for as long as the officer considers reasonably necessary.
- (3) The entitlement to have access to the child referred to in subsection (2)(d) includes an entitlement to both see and talk with the child without a parent of the child or any other person being present.

124. Execution of warrant

- (1) When executing a warrant issued under this Part, an authorised officer or police officer, as the case may be —
- (a) may use reasonable force and assistance; and
  - (b) must produce the warrant or a copy of the warrant if asked to do so by a person at the place where the warrant is, or is to be, executed.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1)(a), an authorised officer who is executing a warrant issued under this Part may call on the assistance of a police officer.
- (3) A police officer who provides assistance under subsection (2) may use reasonable force when doing so.

125. Access to child

If a provision of this Part authorises an authorised officer to have access to a child, the officer is entitled to both see and talk with the child without a parent of the child or any other person being present.
